

Ratnagarbha 8th March 2021

MEDIA DOSSIER:

Print Media: The Telegraph (t2) & Anandabazar Patrika

THE BENGAL CHAMBER SALUTES MOTHERS OF ACHIEVERS

he Bengal Chamber of Commerce & Industry paid tribute to the mothers of several successful people from different fields at the BCCI Ratnagarbha partnered by ABP, as a mark of respect towards women on International Women's Day, at Hyatt Regency Kolkata. A woman plays multiple roles in her lifetime, motherhood being the most special. This year, the awards were handed over in five different categories and a Lifetime Achievement Award was given too. There was also a musical performance by Miss Jojo. Snapshots:

Sumita Sarkar, mother of film-maker Srijit Mukherji, receives gift hampers from Amit Paul, director operations, Hyatt Regency Kolkata, in the Films category.

Suvankar Sen (far right), executive director, and Joyita Sen (far left), head of marketing & design, Senco Gold Limited, felicitate Shila Kundu, mother of Chandra Sekhar Kundu, of the FEED Movement with the award for Social Service.

Sirshendu Mukhopadhyay (centre) receives the Lifetime Achievement Award for contribution to Bengali literature from Deb A. Mukherjee, president, The Bengal Chamber, and film-maker Arindam Sil

Subrata Dutta, chairperson, and Tanmay Banerjee, co-chairperson, BCC&I Sports Development Committee, hand over the Sports award memento to Gouri Karmakar, mother of Olympian gymnast Dipa Karmakar.

Percussionist Bickram Ghosh and Surajit Ghosh, assistant branch manager, Calcutta branch, FTC Foods, hand over the Business trophy to Jamuna Chandra, mother of Pranab Chandra of Mukhorochak.

Rupak Barua, director and group CEO, AMRI Hospitals and (right) Deb A. Mukherjee hand over the AMRI Priviledge Card to Dr Abhijit Chowdhury (centre), secretary, Liver Foundation, for his mother Priti Chowdhury. (Mrs Chowdhury was unwell so the committee handed over the Ratnagarbha Award for Healthcare to her at her residence).

Ratnagarbha- 8th Edition 8th March2021, Venue: Hyatt Regency Kolkata

Publication: Anandabazar Patrika

Date: 08.03.2021

Edition: Kolkata

Page: 9

